Dear Ivon:

Now that the application to assign the licenses of W235CS has been filed at the Federal Communications Commission, pursuant to the FCC's rules it is necessary to make local Public Notice of the filing.

If the station has a website or an applicant-affiliated website, please post the "online notice" for 30 consecutive days to your website using an "FCC Applications" link (located near and in the same font size as your online public file link(s)). The link or tab must link directly to a page containing only the "online" notice text. The page must remain on the station's website permanently. To the extent that there are no pending applications requiring online public notice, the link or tab should link to a page indicating that there are no pending applications subject to the posting requirement. This page must include the date when it was last updated.

If the station doesn't have a website, please place the online Public Notices on a publicly accessible website that is accessible to members of the public without registration or payment requirements, or any other requirement that the user provide information, or respond to a survey or questionnaire in exchange for being to access information on the website and that it is locally targeted to the area served by the applicant station (e.g., local government internet website, local community bulletin board internet website, state broadcasters' association internet website) for 30 days.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Allan G. Moskowitz
